BENEFITS

Increase:

- Customer engagements
- Website traffic
- Store foot traffic
- Sales volumes
- Brand awareness and loyalty

Digital coupons are an excellent way to collect customer data while widening your marketing base. Requirements for claiming a coupon could be to fill out a registration form with personal data, share the coupon on Facebook, watch a video, install an app, or make an online payment. Another way is to use a "social login button," which is very popular.
